DRIVE DOWN COSTS AND FREE UP EMPLOYEE TIME

Significantly decrease the time it takes to prepare outbound communications by eliminating repetitive manual tasks so your staff can spend more time on more meaningful work. Impress speeds up the document delivery process and consolidates communications from multiple locations, saving you money on postal costs and mailing supplies.

GAIN FULL VISIBILITY TO ENSURE PROCESS INTEGRITY

Utilizing intelligent technology, Impress reduces the risk of human error that can occur when manually sorting, grouping, and collating documents. The platform manages pre-defined business rules eliminating the need for manual intervention and ensuring the right document always goes to the right customer.

Impress provides complete control over your outbound document workflow. Track detailed status in a single user-friendly dashboard for both print and digital communications, whether employees send batch output from back-office systems or generate individual communications from their desktops.

MANAGE THE TRANSITION TO DIGITAL FROM ANYWHERE

Impress offers the flexibility to send communications through multiple channels – print, digital, and outsource. The intuitive, SaaS-based platform is ideal for organizations with on-site and remote workforces. Digitize your entire customer communications process and gain access to a full range of capabilities, including assisting customers with their transition to digital.

MODERNIZE AND TRANSFORM YOUR CUSTOMER COMMUNICATION STRATEGY

Leverage your existing infrastructure and retain brand consistency by centralizing customer communications. Users simply prepare documents and send them for processing to their mail production center, a secure outsourced mailing facility, or directly to a customer's preferred digital channel. The platform's built-in approval process allows administrators to review outgoing documents to ensure they are consistent, professional, and reflect your desired brand image. Track distribution status and history in real-time with dynamic dashboards and gain full visibility into your document process.

MAXIMIZE EMPLOYEE PRODUCTIVITY AND ENGAGEMENT

Free up employee time by automating the mail prep process. Gain additional time savings by offloading the production of mailings to Quadient's secure, outsourced mailing facility. Reduce the prep time of one, ten, or thousands of documents to just a few clicks. With the Impress hybrid mail solution employees can prepare, print, sort, stuff, meter, as well as deliver the mail to the post office or send communications through digital channels without leaving their desk.

Reallocate the time gained to higher-value tasks by limiting time-consuming customer service calls. With Quadient Impress, customers are able to answer routine requests and inquiries such as previously sent invoices or other transactional documents.

IMPROVE CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE BY ENABLING DELIVERY PREFERENCE

Transitioning customer documents to paperless delivery has never been easier. Address the growing demand for digital delivery by migrating your customers to electronic communications with built-in digital adoption campaigns. Your customers can choose their preferred digital channel, such as email or a secure, branded portal or choose print mail. Once selected, Impress intelligently manages their selection for future communications.

Customers who choose the portal option get 24-hour access to new and historic documents. Digital documents are automatically stored for easy retrieval, while providing you with greater visibility to ensure important documents promptly reach their intended recipient.

Go green, with eco-friendly, delivery channels that reduce your carbon footprint and promote a modern corporate image.
